AIMS OF THE COURSE

The course aims to introduce students to the main concepts of international business. In the new millennium, the drive of most businesses is to "go global." The trade and investment barriers have been easing and we are witnessing the emerging of more companies into international markets. However, with such expansion, there are opportunities as well as challenges that students of international studies need to understand. In this course, students will familiarize themselves with various controllable and uncontrollable business environments and will develop an understanding of managing international businesses in such environments. Furthermore, students through various cultural dimensions will be able to understand the multicultural aspects of international businesses as well as the ethical responsibilities of international firms.

REMARKS – IN ADDITION TO THE ISM REGULATIONS OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES

- A. The instructor reserves the right to choose the form of the exam (multiple choice/ open answer questions/ essay).
- B. For each seminar, a paper will have to be read by students in advance. (papers will be uploaded 5 working days in advance.)
- C. Attendance and participation in the lectures and seminars is not obligatory, however strongly recommended. Studying solely from slides/ course book is not considered to be a sufficient preparation for the exam.
- D. If final (cumulative) mark of the course, including final exam score, is insufficient, students will be allowed to exercise their right of retake. The retake exam will cover all lectures and case-discussion topics discussed in class during the course. It will be held during the last week of the exam session and will replace the 80% of exams (mid-term and final). Acquired scores from all assignments will be summed up and the final (cumulative) grade will be given. The lecturer reserves the right to choose the form of the exam (multiple choice/ open answer questions/ essay).
- E. Bonus points. The instructor has the right to award very active students with up to 0,2 extra (grade) points. These “bonus points” will be only be awarded to students whose (rounded) final grade would increase after all.
- F. Specific rules apply for in-class presentations.
 - a. Presentations can neither be re-scheduled nor be retaken. Students failing to sign up for a presentation or failing to show up for the presentation, will be allowed to submit an individual written paper on a given topic at the end of the semester. (minimum 1000 -1200 words/ proper APA standards/ specific rules apply).
 - b. In case of serious reasons, individual students may be allowed to switch with another student. Students are responsible for arranging the changes and must inform the lecturer MINIMUM 1 week in advance.
 - c. Within one week of the day of the presentation, each group will receive an evaluation via email.
 - d. 1 (grade) point will be deducted for submitting the presentation slides after deadline.
