

DOCTORAL PROGRAMME IN MANAGEMENT
organized by ISM University of Management and Economics together with BI Norwegian Business School, Aarhus University and Tartu University

Potential Research topics and Supervisors 2021

Research Topic	Supervisor
Representing leadership power and predicting hubris using the knowledge graph data analysis format	Dr. Vita Akstinaitė
The Future of Leadership in a digital world: How can Organisations Minimize the Digital Disruptions and Maximize Digital Innovations?	Dr. Vita Akstinaitė
Learning and unlearning leadership	Prof. dr. Raimonda Alonderienė
Customer value co-creation in the digital era	Prof. dr. Viltė Auruškevičienė
Sustainable Human resource Management and value creation	Prof. dr. Ilona Bučiūnienė
Human resource Management in times of crisis	Prof. dr. Ilona Bučiūnienė
Human resource Management in the context of emerging technologies	Prof. dr. Ilona Bučiūnienė
Governance, shareholder value creation for sustainable growth	Prof. dr. Valdonė Darškuvienė
Governing sustainability in a digitalized world	Prof. dr. Valdonė Darškuvienė
Age-diversity of service employees and customer reactions	Prof. dr. Bernadeta Goštautaitė
Organizational interventions for promoting employee health	Prof. dr. Bernadeta Goštautaitė
The relationship of the Welfare State and Corporate Social Responsibility	Prof. dr. Maik Huettinger
Work environment, employee wellbeing and performance	Prof. dr. Rūta Kazlauskaitė
Contemporary work-life balance: the perspective of older (female) employees	Prof. dr. Rūta Kazlauskaitė
Emerging technologies and Knowledge Transfer	Prof. dr. Aldas Kriaučiūnas
Leadership and Knowledge Transfer	Prof. dr. Aldas Kriaučiūnas
Entrepreneurial communication	Dr. Irina Liubertė
Organizational communication	Dr. Irina Liubertė